ROBINSON WANTS ANOTHER TRIAL

Bingham Attorney Thinks Loofbourow Unduly Influenced A Juror.

CASE OF MARTIN HOBEN

Jurors File Counter Statement Declar. ing He Was Convicted Because Evidence Showed Him Guilty

Harry J. Robinson of Bingham, attorney for Martin F. Hoben, convicted of a statutory offense, is seeking to secure for him a new trial, and to do h he has filed an affidavit charging that Dist. Atty. Loofbourow is guilty of trying unduly to influence a juror in the case by talking to him during the Loofbourow has filed a counter aft-dayit, signed by all the jurors, declar-ing that the conversation had nothing to do with the case, and was merely a remark concerning the Sheets triat.

STENOGRAPHER'S AFFIDAVIT.

William M. Day, a stenographer who was present in the court room, made out for Robinson an affidavit describing what the district attorney did, as fol-

"A short time after I took my seat my attention was drawn to a conversation going on between Mr. Loofbourow and members of the jury, the first thing that attracted my attention being a statement by one of the jurors, which juror occupied a chair in the southwest corner of the jury box, the statement being directed to Mr. Loofbourow, which was in words and effect:

"I am sorry you were not able to convict Chief Sheets."

"I am sorry you were not able to convict Chief Sheets."

"That this remark aroused my interest in the conversation and I heard another juror say, in reply to the statem at with reference to convicting Sheets: 'How could they? There was no evidence that would warrant a conviction,' or words to that effect.

"That in this conversation, Mr. Loofbourow spoke of the improbability of witnesses or persons remembering minor details of a circumstance for any considerable length of time; that after Mr. Loofbourow had talked about the improbability of witnesses remembering minor details of a circumstance, one of the jurors stated that he had, for his own satisfaction, the evening before, after riding home on a street car, in which there were a number of persons that he knew, tried to remember the persons with whom he had ridden and that he was unable to remember but one or two of them; that I was impressed by said remarks when Mr. Loofbourow, in his argument to the jury. referred to the improbability of the witness, Luiu Adams, remembering the details of having purchased blankets at Walker Brothers' store, slippers and pictures at Cohn's store and a goose on Market r. w. which she took home with her to Bingham a day or two before Thanksgiving day; that I know none of the jurors and am unable to give the names of jurors making the statements and remarks above given."

JURORS REPLY.

JURORS REPLY.

The affidavit in reply from the jur-ors declare that they found Hoben guilty because they believed the evi-dence showed him to be guilty and that they were not influenced in any way by the conversation of the district at-torney.

Mr. Loefbourow admits having conversed with a juror but it was just a passing phrase on the Sheets case that was the topic of discussion. Four of the Hoben jury were on the Sheets jury. They were, Samuel Peery, Homer P. Burt, Oliver Duke and John James.

SCARED OF HIS WIFE.

Frank W. Poate Frantically "Seeks Sanctuary" at Police Headquarters.

Breathless with excitement and anxious to flee from the wrath of his wife who, he says, is jealous, Frank W. Poste of 122 south Second East street, rushed into police headquarters last evening and asked to be locked up be-fore he did something rash. Poate and his wife were passing the Poate and his wife were passing—the station when the man suddenly darted in the desk sergeant's office and made his strange request. Mrs. Poate proceeded on her way while Poate explained that he had been driven to desperation by his wife. He said the woman had no faith in men at all and that she was constantly nagging him and making his life miserable.

"She has made me so wrethed that "She has made me so wretched that jail would be a pleasant asylum for me. She has accused me of being unfaithful and is jealous for no reason at all. I have been made so distracted by the woman that at times I have contemplated self destruction. I went to Atty. Soren X. Christensen to have him draw to papers for a discree but con-draw up papers for a divorce but con-cluded to let her get the divorce on any grounds she desired.

Mrs. Poate, who is an attractive wo-man, married Poate two years ago. She was formerly Miss Alicia Houghtaling of Filmt, Mich. Poate remained at po-lice headquarters for about an hour and then looking cautiously up on and then looking cautiously up and down the street, hurried away. Later the woman called and asked if she was wanted. Being informed that she was not, she departed.

CAPT. BURBIDGE FINALLY OUSTED

Mayor Bransford Tags Removal Order "For the Good Of the Service."

WAS BY STRICT PARTY VOTE

Change of Front of City's Executive a Noticeable Feature-Fernstrom Roasts Dominant Party.

By a strict party vote of nine to six, John B. Burbidge was last night removed from the office of captain of police by the city council. The vote came after considerable speechmaking for and against the proposition to move. and against the proposition to move. The men who opposed Mr. Burbidge tried to justify their action, on the ground that "to the victors belong the spoils." The reasons given were entirely political, as it was not possible for one of them to point to a single act in the 18-year service of Mr. Burbidge in the police department that was not highly commendable. His services as a public officer have been so pre-eminently efficient in every way that not even a suspicion or reproach could attach to him, and though changes of administrahim, and though changes of administra-tion have frequently occurred during the years that he has been on the po-lice force, Mr. Burbidge has remained, and with each succeeding chief has been considered the main pillar of the department.

MAYOR'S CHANGE OF FRONT Even so short a time ago as when Roderick McKenzie was appointed chief of police by Mayor Bransford, the city's executive spoke thus of the man whom'he last night turned down at the behest of the clique which fattens on spoils behest of the clique which fattens on spoils:

"I wish to say that I do not intend to interfere with the workings of this department. All I want is harmony in the department. No personal feelings, no political strife and no special favors to anyone. I want to see the department go along on clean, honest lines. We don't want any clique, party or personal matters to interfere with affairs here. When I asked McKenzie to accept this position, he said that he would do so because he knew Capt. Burbidge would assist him."

The public was heartly in accord with the words then uttered by Mayor Bransford, and the majority of citizens will regret that Mr. Bransford's attitude toward Mr. Burbidge changed without any other apparent reason than that it is no longer desirable to keep "cliques, party and personal matters" out of the police department.

Mayor Bransford last evening submitted to the council the following communication, which was indersed by the council by the vote first hadicated:

"I hereby remove, with your consent, John B. Burbidge, proliceman, and acting captain of the Salt Lake City police department, and remove following the vote. department, and respectfully ask your honorable body to concur in such removal. This removal is made for the good of the service of the department. "Respectfully submitted, "JOHN S. BRANSFORD, "Mayor."

FERNSTROM'S REMARKS.

All of the minority councilmen spoke in favor of the retiring officer, and most of the majority members spoke against his retention. The speech of Mr. Fernstrom was strong in commendation of Mr. Burbidge and against the men and policy that would oust him from office without just cause. In num from office without just cause. In part Mr. Fernstrom said:

"There have been rumors afloat as to what the 'American' hierarch stood for," he declared, "but this is the first time they have come out in the open. The promise made by that party at the last election has not been kept. All you 'Americans' know Burbidge to be you 'Americans' know Burbidge to be an efficient officer, and know that he has served the city and the people well. Yet you allow the parly dictators to tell you what to do. You are tools only in the hands of your own hierarch, under whose absolute control you are. The public will rebuke such outrages, and you will find out shortly the harm you have done yourselves by this suicidal course. Right next door to the police department you have a fire department which is remarkable chiefly for its inefficiency. You do not mericans' know Burbidge t chiefly for its inefficiency. You do no remove the head of that department for the good of the service. But you know that insurance rates in the business district would be reduced 25 per cent if he was out, and Salt Lake citizens would be sayed $100,000 a year."

LITTLE ELSE DONE.

The disposition of the Burbidge case took up most of the session, only a few routine matters receiving attention. The appointment of a matron for the city jail went over for a week.

Upon recommendation of Chief Vail, Alfred Johnson and W. J. Lloyd were appointed members of the fire department. Alfred O. Miller was appointed by Chief of Police Pitt as special watchman in the neighborhood of the Hamilton school.

Petitions asking for cheap water rates were received from Rowland hall, Gordon academy and the Collegiate Institute. Flat rates will be charged until June, when other arrangements will be considered.

The city attorney recommended payment of $1,750,97 to Lydia A. Brown, whose son was drowned in City creek on North Temple, for which judgment was obtained against the city.

WATER CASE DISMISSED.

Misunderstandings between the city of Ogden and the Ogden Water Works company have been settled, through thed ismissal of the suit filed in the federal courts. The Water Works com-pany sued the city for $25,000 for hydrant and other water rentals for 1901-and allegations of conspiracy against councilmen was one of the charges. The councilmen were charged with having held prejudice against the plaintiff cor-poration and for that reason, creating unjust legislation, etc.

BOX OF WORTHLESS BONDS. Officer Riley Discovers Some Wall Paper Valued at $300,000.

box containing $300,000 worth of Kona & Kau railway bonds of Hawaii, was found by Special Officer Riley early yesterday morning in a shed in the rear of the Tempieton building. There were 3,000 of the bonds, each for $100 and they bore the seal of the railway company.

They were signed by J. Coerper, vice president, and F. W. Johnson, assistant treasurer and the Germania Trust com-pany of San Francisco was named as

On the box the name of F. W. Johnson was painted in large black letters.

Officer Riley took the bonds to the police station and an investigation was started. No trace of F. W. Johnson could be found. The Wells-Fargo Express company asked for one of the bonds for the purpose of investigation. The railway company was incorporated Aug. 19, 1901 and that is all. It was learned this morning that the railway was never built and that the bonds way was never built and that the bonds are worthless,
